

Please do not allow in-flight cell phone use. Airline seating is already very uncomfortable and very close; it would be a nightmare to sit next to someone chatting away for the whole flight. As the rules are currently, most people know to take care of their "important" business on the ground.
Thank you.